INTERIM PRE-TRIAL DISCOVERY PLAN

On June 25, 2003, this Court issued a written decision prohibiting discovery until a Pre-Trial Discovery Plan was approved and adopted by this Court. This Court will adopt and approve this Interim Pre-Trial Discovery Plan to allow limited discovery until its adoption and approval of a Pre-Trial Discovery Plan. Therefore, it is hereby Ordered:

1. Potential Parties will be allowed to obtain documents and items by the use of subpoena duces tecum depositions in accordance with R.C.P. 45. Potential Parties, and all subpoenaed individuals and entities, shall have all of the rights and privileges provided by R.C.P. 45. The depositions shall be conducted only for the stated purpose of obtaining documents and related items. Therefore, only questions related to the identity of documents, their location and effort made to locate them, and to determine the identity of potential defendants are permitted, and no other testimony will be asked for or elicited without further order of this Court.

2. Notice of the depositions shall be provided to each attorney on the attached certification list at least seven (7) business days before the date set forth in the subpoena.

3. The deposition transcripts will be made available to any Interested Party upon payment of the applicable stenographic charges. Any Interested Party may attend through counsel but may not participate in the depositions unless their identity is disclosed. After such time as a person or entity has been deposed, that person or entity may not be deposed further by a disclosed party under this Interim Pre-Trial Discovery Plan or the Pre-Trial Discovery Plan without leave of the Court. Interested parties that are not identified at the depositions may seek to re-depose a person or entity after such time as they have been served with a summons and complaint.
